

SUBSCRIPTION RATES.

One copy, one year.	$1.50
One copy, six months.	.75
One copy, four months.	.50

No deduction from these rates under any circumstances.

All letters on business must be addressed to BARRETT & SUTTON, Publishers.

DIRECTORY.

COUNTY DIRECTORY.

Circuit Court.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.

Circuit Court.

H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.

Circuit Court.

H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.

Circuit Court.

H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.

Circuit Court.

H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.

Circuit Court.

H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.

Circuit Court.

H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.

Circuit Court.

H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.

Circuit Court.

H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.

Circuit Court.

H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.

Circuit Court.

H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.

Circuit Court.

H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.

Circuit Court.

H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.

Circuit Court.

H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.

Circuit Court.

H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.

Circuit Court.

H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.

Circuit Court.

H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.

Circuit Court.

H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.

Circuit Court.

H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.

Circuit Court.

H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.

Circuit Court.

H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.

Circuit Court.

H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.

Circuit Court.

H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.

Circuit Court.

H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.

Circuit Court.

H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.

Circuit Court.

H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.

Circuit Court.

H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.

Circuit Court.

H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.

Circuit Court.

H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.

Circuit Court.

H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.

Circuit Court.

H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.

Circuit Court.

H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.

Circuit Court.

H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.

Circuit Court.

H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.

Circuit Court.

H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.

Circuit Court.

H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.
H. A. Lupton, Judge, Cincinnati.

THE HARTFORD HERALD.

"I COME, THE HERALD OF NOISY WORLD, THE NEWS OF ALL NATIONS LUMBERING AT MY BACK"

VOL. 8.

HARTFORD, KENTUCKY, FEBRUARY 22, 1882.

NO. 8.

ADVERTISING RATES.

Space	One Week	Two Weeks	One Month	Three Months	Six Months	One Year
10 Lines	$1.00	$1.75	$3.00	$7.50	$12.00	$20.00
20 Lines	$2.00	$3.50	$6.00	$15.00	$24.00	$40.00
30 Lines	$3.00	$5.25	$9.00	$22.50	$36.00	$60.00
40 Lines	$4.00	$7.00	$12.00	$30.00	$48.00	$80.00
50 Lines	$5.00	$8.75	$15.00	$37.50	$60.00	$100.00

For a shorter time, at proportionate rates.
One inch of space constitutes a square.

LIVES.

To the memory of Miss Fannie Davis.

BY GEO. C. WEDDING.

Respectfully dedicated to her father, sister, and brother.

Lay her to sleep where the zephyrs play gently.

While the sunbeams from Heaven's mansion descend.

Yes, make her a grave where the flowers kiss sweetly.

The dew drops from Heaven, which will e'er visit.

Cold, cold indeed, is thy fair face to-day.

And all we can do is shed the soul's tears.

And all we can do is shed the soul's tears.

And all we can do is shed the soul's tears.

And all we can do is shed the soul's tears.

And all we can do is shed the soul's tears.

And all we can do is shed the soul's tears.

And all we can do is shed the soul's tears.

And all we can do is shed the soul's tears.

And all we can do is shed the soul's tears.

And all we can do is shed the soul's tears.

And all we can do is shed the soul's tears.

And all we can do is shed the soul's tears.

And all we can do is shed the soul's tears.

And all we can do is shed the soul's tears.

And all we can do is shed the soul's tears.

And all we can do is shed the soul's tears.

And all we can do is shed the soul's tears.

And all we can do is shed the soul's tears.

And all we can do is shed the soul's tears.

And all we can do is shed the soul's tears.

And all we can do is shed the soul's tears.

And all we can do is shed the soul's tears.

And all we can do is shed the soul's tears.

And all we can do is shed the soul's tears.

And all we can do is shed the soul's tears.

And all we can do is shed the soul's tears.

And all we can do is shed the soul's tears.

And all we can do is shed the soul's tears.

And all we can do is shed the soul's tears.

And all we can do is shed the soul's tears.

And all we can do is shed the soul's tears.

And all we can do is shed the soul's tears.

And all we can do is shed the soul's tears.

And all we can do is shed the soul's tears.

And all we can do is shed the soul's tears.

And all we can do is shed the soul's tears.

And all we can do is shed the soul's tears.

And all we can do is shed the soul's tears.

And all we can do is shed the soul's tears.

And all we can do is shed the soul's tears.

And all we can do is shed the soul's tears.

And all we can do is shed the soul's tears.

And all we can do is shed the soul's tears.

And all we can do is shed the soul's tears.

Notion Nymph.

February 11th, 1882.

Editor Herald:

The readers of the HERALD saw an account of Elisha Abbott tickling James B. Hooker with his barlow. A writ for his arrest was issued and placed in the hands of an officer for execution, who went to take charge of the law-breaker, but Abbott showed a light pair of heels and made his desirable presence "seen," and left to parts unknown to this department.

Died, February 3rd, 1882, Mr. George M. Vaughn. The funeral obsequies were performed by Elder J. T. Casheier at Cool Spring Church, on Sunday after death.

Mr. J. F. Wade is certainly a devoted juvenile husband and provider for his family, as it is said by people of un-doubted veracity, that during the month of January he carried upon his shoulder to Slaty Creek Mill, one and one-half bushels of corn; the distance being five miles. What community can beat this for a devoted husband?

Mr. G. W. Quinn, and pupils of his school, are preparing to give an exhibition at Cool Spring church, Wednesday night, February 22d, 1882. Visitors are requested to come by early candle-lighting.

Sam H. House, a young gentleman of this neighborhood, has gone to Texas. My ticket for Appellate Clerk—Richard T. Jacobs for County Judge, E. P. Morgan for County Attorney, first choice, H. B. Kinsolving, second choice, H. B. Kinsolving, third choice, H. B. Kinsolving, and after that I do not care a continental whether chaos comes or not.

THE BUSINESS MAN'S BEST FRIEND.

Mr. C. L. Oudeshops, a leading importer of Baltimore, has stated that nothing has done his dyspepsia, indigestion, &c., so much good as that wonderful oil of cod liver fish, which he has been using for some time. He says he is now in the best of health, and is able to do his work as usual.

THE KENTUCKY TRAVELLER.

Left Hot Springs yesterday morning, and arrived here last night. This is a thriving and growing city. It boasts of a good many manufacturing establishments and other modern improvements. The city is built on a slight elevation, embracing an area of one square mile. The country surrounding it is low and boggy, and peculiarly adapted for the propagation of chills and fevers. Good farming land is very scarce. It is only now and then one can see an elevation high enough to locate a farm on which all the cereals can be raised. The whole country at this time is nearly submerged. The recent heavy rains here did great damage to railroads both in Texas and Arkansas. The engine and tender on the Texas & Pacific road, forty miles east of Sherman, ran through a bridge, killing the fireman and pumpman instantaneously. Fortunately no other damage was done to the train. People here care but little for a dead man as the sequel will show. Last night a tramp came into the gentleman's sitting-room at the Iron Mountain depot. He was taken sick and died in a few minutes, lying on the floor. No one seemed to care anything about it. Next morning your correspondent went into the depot, and there lay the form of the dead man. The Mayor was notified of the fact, but didn't put in an appearance until 4 o'clock, p. m., when he ordered a negro to gather up the body and put it in a cart, which the negro did, and carried it off for interment. While the corpse was lying on the floor all the forenoon passengers were constantly coming in and going out, and didn't seem to be the least affected by the ghastly face of the dead man. I was told by a citizen that the people here paid no attention to such things. More anon.

"Lough on Rats."

The thing desired found at last. Ask druggists for "Lough on Rats." It clears out rats, mice, roaches, flies, bedbugs, lice, boxes.

N. L. Fulkerson Solicited.

We, the undersigned Democratic voters of Rockport voting precinct, solicit S. L. Fulkerson to become a candidate before the primary election for the nomination for Sheriff of Ohio county. We pledge ourselves to use our influence for his nomination, and if nominated to use all honorable means for his election.

Z. W. Shultz, J. B. Williams, David Vaughan, J. C. Jones, L. J. Vickers, J. T. Casheier, G. W. Vaughn, L. E. Williams, J. M. J. Reid, S. D. Robertson, Riley McDowell, E. D. Gordon, S. Redd, J. C. Williams, J. E. Fulton, C. S. Robertson, J. D. Davenport, Gus Bentley, E. W. Rutledge, Peter Ward, E. W. Hudson, William Derrick, B. F. Kirtley, John Doherty, H. D. Jackson, S. Redd, J. E. Fulton, Tol Robertson, R. B. Culbertson.

Fees and Doctors.

The fees of doctors is an item that very many persons are interested in just at present. We believe the schedule for visits is $3, which would tax a man confined to his bed for a year, and in need of daily visits, over $1,000 a year for medical attendance alone! And one single bottle of Hop Bitters taken in time would save the $1,000 and all the year's sickness.—Post.

There is Nothing Like It.

The failing powers of digestion, assimilation, secretion and excretion, are restored to permanent health, strength and activity, by using Brown's Iron Bitters—a true tonic! a perfect strengthener—a sure tonic!

Editor Herald:

After the few pretty days we have had some rain and mud again.

The health of the people in this community is good.

Mr. Jack Neel moved here yesterday, and expects to leave his family in care of Rufus Neel, while he visits Florida for his health.

Mr. Rufus Neel and Prof. Parcell will commence a good school in a few days we trust.

The candidates for the various offices are as thick as grasshoppers in Kansas. We recently met Mr. J. M. Colyer, one of our estimable candidates for Jailor. Mr. Colyer is highly respected where he is known, and would no doubt make an excellent Jailor, and we say hurrah for Colyer.

Mr. John W. Mosley was here Saturday, and I wish I could put one vote in for him for Assessor. I can say hurrah for him, anyhow.

Don't you forget it! We are deadening over the line here for Thomas J. Smith for Clerk. Yours,

BEFESTAKER.

Editor Herald:

News scarce, but mud is plentiful.

Mr. Elmore Angles, of this place, has been down with rheumatism, but is up again, and says that he thinks that St. Jacob's Oil cured him.

Aunt Martha Bracken, of color, died of pleurisy on the 7th inst.

Widow Cindarella Stewart is going to move, but not to Texas.

Mr. Thos. Gilstrap, of Cronwell, is building a large store-house.

Miss Martha Parrott has just closed a five months' school in district 103, and as far as I know has given entire satisfaction.

Old Mrs. James Jarnagin is in very feeble health.

Mr. T. Morton has made two trips to Evansville with saw-logs this winter, and is going to start with another raft right away.

Wheat crops look very promising. Farmers are waiting for the ground to get in order to go to sowing oats. Some few have already commenced.

Mr. James Wilson, of Grayson county, was visiting his mother at this place on the 11th inst.

The candidates have commenced their speaking. I think that they had better wait and carry their rations with them, for provisions are scarce and there are so many of them they might starve out.

SUCCESS TO THE HERALD! is the wish of JIM JACK.

THE BUSINESS MAN'S BEST FRIEND.

Mr. C. L. Oudeshops, a leading importer of Baltimore, has stated that nothing has done his dyspepsia, indigestion, &c., so much good as that wonderful oil of cod liver fish, which he has been using for some time. He says he is now in the best of health, and is able to do his work as usual.

THE KENTUCKY TRAVELLER.

Left Hot Springs yesterday morning, and arrived here last night. This is a thriving and growing city. It boasts of a good many manufacturing establishments and other modern improvements.

THE HERALD.

J. P. BARRETT, Editor.
C. C. T. SUTTON, Editor.

WEDNESDAY, FEB. 22, 1882

OWENSBORO voted herself a new charter on the 13th inst.

The Frankfort daily Dispatch, after a brief existence, has gone up the flame.

The Democratic primary election in Daviess county comes off March 18, 1882, just one week later than ours.

F. M. NEVINS, formerly of Nashville, has been swindling the tobacco warehousemen of Louisville pretty lively lately.

The grand jury of Daviess county returned indictments against the magistrates for voting themselves $3 per day instead of $2, as allowed by law for attending Court of Chancery.

A bill making polygamy an offense punishable by a fine of $500 and confinement in the penitentiary not exceeding five years passed the United States Senate last Thursday. Will the law be enforced, is the next question.

A VERY complimentary call on S. L. Fulkerson to become a candidate for Sheriff appears in this issue. It was received last week after the paper had gone to press and several hundred copies run off.

The Chinese do their counting by proxy. Our boys say they do not want that custom introduced here. A sour benedict hard by says he prefers the counting in person, but would not object to the marrying and living together being done by proxy.

DAVID L. SMITH, present Sheriff, was nominated for reelection by the Republican tribunal on the 6th inst. Dave is little but "bold," and has made a very good Sheriff so far as we know or have heard, and the Democrat that walks his log this summer will have to get up and chuck. Dave is a very popular Republican, and in his race for Assessor in 1878 came within three votes of being elected, and in 1880 was elected Sheriff by a decided majority, in both races running a long ways ahead of his party vote.

The Willard Hotel Lottery drawing did not take place on the 14th inst., as the commissioners assured the public. The Court of Appeals have not passed upon the appeal to that court involving the legality of the grant, and the parties conducting it were afraid to go on with the drawing, besides the suits have obstructed the sale of tickets, and not enough tickets have been sold to justify a drawing yet. Mr. Whips publishes a card in which he states that he has assurances that the Court of Appeals will decide the case within six weeks.

SOME of our candidates are sending off to get their cards, circulars, etc., printed. We suppose they are actuated to do so by prejudice, as they get inferior work to ours, and the same kind of work that we would do at the same or less price. We have concluded that all such candidates had as well import a few voters along for if they ignore us, saying nothing by so doing, they of course don't want our votes and influence, and we will pay them back in their own coin by voting for men who give home institutions the preference, other things being equal.

CHRISTIAN county has 31,681 population while Daviess county has only 27,724, and because Daviess county is Democratic and Christian Republican a Democratic Committee on Apportionment has reported a bill giving Daviess two Representatives and Christian only one, and the Chairman of the Committee justifies it because Republicans have gerrymandered in Ohio and Indiana. Great God! has it come to this? Must a Democrat cast a horse, and is he justified for such a crime because forsooth a Republican stole a horse last year. Democrats, do right regardless of the consequences, pass an apportionment bill that will distribute the Representatives as nearly according to population as possible and trust the result. Let your sense of justice, your official oaths be regarded rather than the spirit of blind partisanship, and you will be glad of it ever afterwards.

IN the apportionment, as agreed upon by the Committee of the House of Representatives, Daviess county is given two Representatives and Christian county one, while Christian has a larger population and a larger number of votes. Is this right? Is it honest? Can the Democratic majority in the Legislature afford to pass the bill? We say, emphatically, NO. It is an outrage upon the principles of Democracy. Democrats should do right though the Heavens fall. An act like this at any time will prove disastrous to any party favoring it, but just at this time such an act would swell the dissatisfaction and stimulate the McHenry movement and eventually displace the Democrats from power. If the Democrats do pass the bill it will be solely because Daviess county is largely Democratic and Christian county largely Republican. Even if the giving of two Representatives to Christian and only one to Daviess would change the balance of power and make the next Legislature Republican, still the present Legislature should do it. They should not stop to inquire what effect it will have upon parties, but to ascertain whether it is right, and then dare to do it regardless of the consequences. We have always been a Democrat, have voted that ticket since 1864 without a scratch, but we do not endorse any such outrages as this would be, or any party that does endorse it. A political party that acts thus will soon be buried under the dark waves of oblivion, never to come to the surface of power again. No honest man can endorse an act giving a minority two Representatives and a majority one.

JACKSON'S fireworks at Chester, Pa., caught fire last Thursday. The fire department were engaged in putting it out when a terrific explosion occurred, killing twenty-two men and wounding many more.

THE medical department of Central University, Louisville, Ky., will hold the commencement exercises at Macaulay's Theater next Friday, commencing at 2:30 p. m. Thanks to the Committee for an invitation to be present.

SINCE the fire in New York, January 31st, 1882, which consumed the office files, etc., of S. M. Peeling & Co., News paper Advertising Agents, they have opened out at 263 Broadway, in same city, and are again prepared with every facility for the transaction of their business.

Respectfully dedicated to the Junior Editor:
This vexatious vexation
Makes me twitch;
It's a perfect torment.
Not for which
I must pass through tribulation,
Scratched and growl like thunder,
With the frequent exclamation:
"Bring this fellow!"

THE Assessors of this State appear to have been an industrious set of fellows as they found in 1881 an aggregate voting population of 363,419. The census enumerators for 1880 found a population of 1,048,599. The Assessors make about every fourth person a voter. Wonder if that 15 cents per list did not help them to find a few naytys?

"While the jump holds out to him
The vilest snapper may return."
A man with the measles attended a double wedding at Owen, and thirty of the fifty people present were afterwards taken with it, including both of the grooms and one of the brides.
—Ennet's Log.

A year ago Ennet thought the people would have taken more than a thousand of them.
A fire occurred last Thursday morning about 6 o'clock on Main street, near Third, Louisville, Ky., totally destroying Wm. Ehrman's confectionery establishment, and greatly damaging Wranglemeier & Co.'s furniture store and W. H. McKnight's carpet store. The origin of the fire is unknown. The loss was $100,000, mostly covered by insurance.

THE Louisville Commercial in making up an estimate of the stealings of Assessors for 1881 places the vote of this county in the Presidential race of 1880 at 2,347 votes, when in fact it was 3,191, and a small vote polled. In August, 1880, there were 3,780 votes polled in this county. The Assessors in some of the counties no doubt returned more voters than the counties had, but we honestly believe that Ohio county today has 4,500 and had full 4,329 in 1881, as returned by the Assessor. This is a large county, this is.

THE Lower House of Congress last Thursday adopted the amendment of Mr. Anderson, of Kansas, providing for 162 members of Congress by a vote of 102 yeas to 104 nays. The bill as amended allows members to the States as follows:
Alabama.....8
Arkansas.....5
California.....5
Colorado.....3
Connecticut.....2
Delaware.....1
Florida.....2
Georgia.....3
Illinois.....20
Indiana.....10
Iowa.....4
Kansas.....5
Kentucky.....11
Louisiana.....6
Maine.....2
Maryland.....6
Massachusetts.....12
Michigan.....11
Minnesota.....5
Mississippi.....2
Missouri.....14
Nebraska.....3
Nevada.....1
New Hampshire.....2
New Jersey.....34
New York.....39
North Carolina.....14
Ohio.....21
Oregon.....3
Rhode Island.....1
South Carolina.....7
Tennessee.....10
Texas.....11
Vermont.....1
Virginia.....10
West Virginia.....4
Wisconsin.....3

This gives one additional member each to Arkansas, Georgia, Illinois, Kentucky, Massachusetts, Mississippi, Missouri, New York, North Carolina, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Virginia, West Virginia and Wisconsin; two each to California, Iowa, Nebraska, Michigan, Minnesota and South Carolina; four to Kansas and five to Texas; and reduces the membership from Maine, New Hampshire and Vermont one each. It would have been far more sensible, and the people would have been better represented, better served, and had better laws at less expense if the number had been reduced instead of increased. The body is already so large that it is unwieldy.

MR. McLENNAN, of Fayette county, has introduced a bill, or rather amended one already introduced by Mr. Warlock, of Greenup county, to consolidate and pro-rate the school fund among all the children of the State of pupil age, regardless of color. This is a move in the right direction. The colored population are now citizens, and it is to the interest of the State that the coming generation of them should be given a practical education, and made good citizens instead of growing up in ignorance and becoming idlers, tramps and criminals. Where ignorance abounds crime doth flourish, and where intelligence prevails crime diminisheth. It costs less to give a child a practical education, and fit it for a useful citizen, than it does to prosecute that same child in after years for one single offense against the law. We are for an increase of the school fund by taxation, allowing the school districts to draw it only when they have raised a supplemental amount by local taxation sufficient to conduct a good school for at least eight months in the year and have erected a comfortable school-house. If this were the law not a district in the State would be found but would comply. As it is, the public fund is almost solely dependent on, and a teacher is employed in capacity and intelligence according to the size of the fund drawn, and hence the common schools are for this age and time a failure. Let us have the fund by State taxation large enough, and make it obligatory on the districts to build good houses and raise an equal fund by local taxation before they can draw the State fund and then we will see Kentucky begin to take her place in progress and improvement alongside of Indiana, Illinois and other States that have good public schools.

TO DAY is Ash Wednesday and is the beginning of Lent.

OWENSBORO Junction has been incorporated as Central City, and is a live town.

THE Democratic primary Election in Hancock County comes off next Saturday.

OUR Legislature has changed the time of meeting back to the old date December 30th.

W. H. MURRELL, of Beaver Dam, is prospecting with a view to locating in Littlefield. So says the Saville.

GEORGE Y. WOLFORD, a brother of Gen. Frank Wolford, comes out in the McHenry movement.

THE Evangelist, Geo. O. Barnes left Louisville last Monday for Bowling Green, where he will hold forth a while.

It is not our say, but if it were we would say to the Democrats of Daviess County that R. W. Slack will make an excellent County Attorney.

A BILL passed the Lower House at Frankfort, last Friday, repealing the charter of the Owensboro & Nashville Railroad unless said road was completed within two years.

WALTER EVANS, Silas F. Miller and James Speed, all Stairway Republicans, of Louisville, published a card in the city papers last week advising the Republicans to let the McHenry movement alone.

THE McHenry-Jacob Union Democrats will hold a meeting in Louisville on the 28th inst. Col. Jacob, Maj. Kinney and others will speak. The meeting will adopt a platform and prepare for the canvass.

JACOB's Ladder of old had three principal rooms, Col. R. T. Jacob's Ladder, upon which he aims to climb into the appellate clerkship office, also has three principal rooms, viz., Union Democrats Greenbackers and Republicans.

COL. J. Z. MOORE of Owensboro, is in Washington endeavoring to get the administration to recognize the McHenry movement. All the Kentucky Republicans in Washington at present, with one exception, are said to favor the endorsement of Jacob. The President is reported to have said that he favored all measures, that would break up the Solid South.

SINCE Col. John H. McHenry's second letter, dated January 2nd was published, he has been assiduously and ridiculed by the short-sighted, narrow-contracted, hide-bound, illiberal democratic press, but none of them no not a single one, has attempted to answer or controvert what he had to say regarding the cause of complaint that led to the movement.

HARTFORD is taxed very heavily for the support of Hartford College, and it seems an act of injustice to tax us to support a college in Lexington. The Louisville Post speaking of this says:

"The constitution says that all money raised by taxation or otherwise for educational purposes shall go to the common schools of the State. It also says that each county shall have an equal proportion of the fund so raised. The tax for the support of the A. & M. College violates both of these provisions, and no one should pay it."

THE Democratic Executive Committee of Ohio county have appointed officers of election in each precinct, to conduct the primary election to be held Saturday, March 11th, 1882. A list of the officers will be found in this issue. We trust that the gentlemen selected will so far as possible, serve. We are glad to note that this is to be a Democratic primary election, and to be participated in by Democrats only.

HON. H. D. McHENRY, of this place, in a letter to his brother, Col. John H. McHenry, says: "I shall not go with you in your Union Democratic move. The Union Democrats in this county would have fused with the Republicans on candidates for county offices here and carried the county, but the Republicans on Monday nominated a clean ticket of their most extreme men, and the result will be to unite thoroughly the Democracy in the county. I think your movement will have the effect to force the Democrats at the next State Convention to divide the offices."

IT is only two weeks and three days until the primary election. Many Democrats are apt to ignore the importance of the primary convention or election and not give that attention to the selection of candidates that they should. The masses stay away from the primaries and let a few interested persons control them and the result is a ticket nominated from personal motives or interests. It occasionally happens that men not at all adapted, or wholly incapable of filling the positions are nominated, and the party always suffers from such nominations, sometimes suffering defeat thereby. This can be avoided by a full attendance of Democrats at the primary, bent upon selecting a good ticket regardless of personal considerations. Let Democrats turn out en masse at the primary and be exceedingly careful to nominate a good ticket of honest, capable men. Let them go over the list of aspirants carefully, and select the very best men of character and standing, of discretion and judgment, honest and true, who have the county's welfare at stake. By doing this they have a very fair show of success in August. The Democrats have suffered defeat in the county heretofore by a small attendance at the primary and the consequent selection of a ticket from personal or interested motives, and then the stay-at-home fellows would rebel and refuse to vote for the ticket nominated. No party can long succeed that acts thus. It is the duty of every Democrat in the county to attend the primary and vote for the best men, then a good ticket is selected and its election almost assured.

The McHenry Movement Through Republican Glasses.

Editor Herald:
I desire, briefly, to notice the McHenry movement from a Republican standpoint. It has been believed by Republicans that there never has been any common ground between the Union and Bourbon elements of the Democratic party, and that they have been united under a single leadership for reasons quite independent of any common sympathy or bond of union. We have believed also that there has always been common principles between Republicans and Union Democrats and that they ought to be united. The recent movement confirms us in these opinions, if it needed so much, for it has all along been so apparent that the Democratic party has been a mingling of water and oil that conformation has not been needed. What difference of opinion exists between Union Democrats and Republicans? In a belief that the Union ought not to have been destroyed, in a disbelief in the policy and right of secession, upon the subject of states rights, we have always been together. Many Union Democrats, however, did not desire to see the emancipation proclamation, that is they were for the Union with slavery protected, though not so well satisfied with it in principle. They had also insisted that the Federal Government would not disturb that institution. When it became apparent that slavery was doomed, somewhat against their line of reasoning, but borne onward by an over-shadowing sentiment, the ardor of many Union men cooled and they were ultimately led into the Democratic fold. Other Union men served through the war, and after it joined the Democratic party, and much against their will have remained with it until the recent portentous break. During all these long 17 years they have stood in the porch of the Democratic house, not understanding that "Lost Cause" was the counter-sign to the interior. What differences have Union Democrats had with their natural allies, the Republicans? Only this and nothing more, a difference as to the policy of admitting at once to power and influence those adherents of the "Lost Cause," caught red handed in the act of war. On the Republican side it was insisted that a cautious policy ought to be pursued, that men, though our former friends and brothers, red handed in war upon the Union, ought and must give guarantees and hostages for the future, that it was not safe to blot out five years of the national struggle and invest with supreme authority those so lately in adverse arms, that the status of the colored man, from its earliest history a prolific source of discord should be fixed for the future, that the results of the war should be maintained and faith-established. This was the Republican argument. The Union Democrat said the South has laid down its arms, national supremacy is restored, admit at once the expatriated sons of Clay, Crittenden and Breckenridge. Without terror conditions. This was the Union Democratic argument, an argument noble in itself and worthy of beliefs in the indissolubility of the American States.

Time and experience have loaned their weight to these adverse views, Union Democrats trusting, and Republicans distrusting Confederate faith and professions. In the light of 17 years, which argument was the wiser? We have seen the Union Democrats standing in the porch of the Democratic house until their heads have silvered, vainly endeavoring to say "shibboleth," nay, more, we have seen Democratic Union men in the slavery of party allegiance, bowing to the cap of the Confederate Gessler, but the tyrant knew them not, nay more, we have seen them led in the path of measures that their souls abhorred and lashed with the party whip until political manhood seemed departing. If it were possible, in imagination, to transfer all this to the seat of the national government and to imagine Confederate domination under the dome of the Capitol, what a spectacle should we have. To be Governor of Kentucky one must have been a rebel. If the policy of the Union Democrats had been transferred to national affairs, to be a President one must have been a Confederate. Heaven forbid! Who then was right and who then was wrong?

Kentucky was handed over to the Confederates under Wolford's certainly mischievous plea of admitting these expatriated sons. Would it have been wise to have transferred the National authority? Would not the door of the National have been more easy to bar than that of the State House? Let the plain truth come, the Confederates have kept pious faith with and deceived their union allies. Not a crumb of their power have they given, and they have openly boasted that Confederate services was the test of Democracy, and that, too, in a spirit over-bearing and arrogant. In all the differences between the Union Democrats and Republicans over the status of the colored man, a lurid Confederate shadow has enveloped the former so that they have had no light of day to avow their real sentiments. They had no heart in the white man's party, are now willing the colored man should be educated, and I believe would not disturb the existing conditions of things.

Editor Herald:
It now having been demonstrated that the programme of "expatriated sons" was met with puny faith on the part of the Confederate sons, why do not Union Democrats and Republicans occupy common ground? In the present emergency, Col. Jacobs will be acceptable to the Republican party. Union Democrats dare you come from without the baneful Bourbon shadow and say as much? Indeed, will you go further than that, if so, say as much? It is urged that Union Democrats should fight out the matter within party lines. Fight what out? Is it the Union Cause versus the Lost Cause? That has been once fought. Fight what out? Is it that the Union Cause was eternally right, and the Lost Cause everlastingly wrong? That has been so decided. Fight what out? Is it whether or not it was a disgrace to have worn the blue? Who is the fight to be with? And so Federal fights, Confederate for respectability! The laws of nature forbid a combat between oil and water. It is a death grapple. To Republicans, let me say, it is no time to say to their old friends, "I told you so." Let the past bury its dead. All who believe now in the overthrow of Confederate Bourbonism occupy common ground. Alliances and concessions are in order for this purpose. The war is over, and if the distinctions which grew out of it are preserved, blame must be laid at the Bourbon door. Progress, advancement, golden fields and harvests, material prosperity, all demand Bourbon overthrow. For once, the election of a single officer, after that—the deluge.

February 21, 1882.

A REPUBLICAN OBSERVER.
All who know me know that my life is made of a reduse, my only company and pleasure being that of my dear old grandmother and my books. Our old house reminds me of a nest where the birds have long since flown, but it has a charm for me, we occupy rooms in the South wing, and this old room of mine, I would not have changed for anything. I have spent many hours tracing out the quaint designs carved on its massive old furniture, and studying the paintings that hang round the walls; that time has toned down, even more beautiful than at first. And this dear old room was my mother's when she was a girl, and everything just as she had it. She spent only a few years in her happy, new home, when I was sent back a helpless little orphan, without mother or father, but in the hearts of the loved ones at home. The other evening after a reverie of this kind, I started out for my accustomed walk, and unconsciously I wandered on, and was attracted as the fly by the brilliant flood of light from Hartford College. I obeyed the impulse of the moment and went in. I mean in the hall, for a throng of people were standing near the door leading into the music hall, and was told Hon. H. D. McHenry was addressing the people. I was soon after entranced by strains of sweet music, then followed speeches and music, and at last there came a hush, then clear and distinct above everything arose the soft, full voice of Mrs. Belle Glenn in response for the A. B. C. Society, of which she is President. Her address was apropos, not a word too much or too little. Shortly after the doors, leading into the large dining hall, were thrown open and supper announced. I stepped aside to the throng, and pass they did, and as ceaseless as our mad and rushing stream, rough river. While I was making a wall-flower of myself, and contemplating the grandeur of that $5,000 structure, so much having been said and written about; a fairy spirit came to me with an invitation to supper, and from the witchery of her manner and the brilliancy of the occasion, I was so dazzled that I thought to any sensible observer the building cost $10,000 instead of $5,000. Now we have the building and are proud of it, so let the dear old board pass; the only fault any one can find to me is that they probably voted themselves too liberally of the money, but I don't care for that, and I don't care if I am taxed to send some pretty girls to school. No, indeed, I won't grumble, for I know I pay on as handsome and valuable property as anyone's my head. After supper we had more speeches, one in particular is worthy of note, that of Dr. J. E. Pendleton, that beautiful and touching tribute to "Our Girls," should be cherished by every lady under the sound of his voice. We were favored with some songs by Miss Nannie Alexander; the ravishing sweetness of her voice will linger with me many a day, but as I was leaving for home the low, sweet strains of "Home, Sweet Home" fell upon my ear, and helped to carry me into dreamland, a land of flowers, and tables spread like those at College Hall, and surrounded by pretty girls, and this would have been felicity had not that little man who spoke about "The Old Board," who had on the false face and asked the audience if he wasn't handsome, kept coming or the scene. I suddenly hope that after the commingling of friends and neighbors on that social occasion, that if there ever was an unkind feeling or unpleasant word, that it was entombed and the remembrance of it, that the mound is wreathed with perpetual flowers of friendship that will bud, blossom and send forth the increase of love to future generations.

AN OBSERVER.

Editor Herald:
I wish to say for the information of your exchange, the Bowling Green Gazette, that we are trying to comb "the cockleburrs out of Senator Hill's mane and tail," but they are so matted that we fear it will take a long time to get him sleek and in good form for a gubernatorial race.

Editor Herald:
I think the correspondent must be laboring under a mistake or willfully misrepresented us. Being one of the idle merchants myself, I think I can safely say there is not a town containing only two hundred and twenty-five inhabitants in the county that does a larger business or has more solid merchants than Crowell can boast of, besides the town is not dead, or even sleeping. We are improving our streets—putting in six new crossings, which will assist "J. M." very much when he comes around to take our measure for burial clothes.

February 19, 1882.

Editor Herald:
Having seen a communication in the Herald of the 12th inst., stating that the merchants were wanting to engage the small boys to play after the account of having nothing else to do, and that if this place did not get one of the proposed railroads that it would be too dead to kick, etc., signed "J. M." I think the correspondent must be laboring under a mistake or willfully misrepresented us. Being one of the idle merchants myself, I think I can safely say there is not a town containing only two hundred and twenty-five inhabitants in the county that does a larger business or has more solid merchants than Crowell can boast of, besides the town is not dead, or even sleeping. We are improving our streets—putting in six new crossings, which will assist "J. M." very much when he comes around to take our measure for burial clothes.

February 19, 1882.

Editor Herald:
I wish to say for the information of your exchange, the Bowling Green Gazette, that we are trying to comb "the cockleburrs out of Senator Hill's mane and tail," but they are so matted that we fear it will take a long time to get him sleek and in good form for a gubernatorial race.

Editor Herald:
I think the correspondent must be laboring under a mistake or willfully misrepresented us. Being one of the idle merchants myself, I think I can safely say there is not a town containing only two hundred and twenty-five inhabitants in the county that does a larger business or has more solid merchants than Crowell can boast of, besides the town is not dead, or even sleeping. We are improving our streets—putting in six new crossings, which will assist "J. M." very much when he comes around to take our measure for burial clothes.

February 19, 1882.

Editor Herald:
I wish to say for the information of your exchange, the Bowling Green Gazette, that we are trying to comb "the cockleburrs out of Senator Hill's mane and tail," but they are so matted that we fear it will take a long time to get him sleek and in good form for a gubernatorial race.

February 19, 1882.

Editor Herald:
I wish to say for the information of your exchange, the Bowling Green Gazette, that we are trying to comb "the cockleburrs out of Senator Hill's mane and tail," but they are so matted that we fear it will take a long time to get him sleek and in good form for a gubernatorial race.

THOS. Gilstrap is building a frame business house, 28x80 feet, which will be one of the largest dry-goods houses in the county. He will have it completed by the first of May.

A Kahn was out on the streets yesterday for the first time in six weeks, having been confined to his room by sickness for that length of time.

We have three tobacco factories in operation—Dr. B. N. Patterson's, W. G. Tibbitts and R. J. A. N. C. Tibbitts. The three houses have purchased about three hundred thousand pounds at liberal prices.

Green River is on a high again, and rising fast; expected to be as high as the famous rise of 1880. A great deal of damage has already been done by the high water in carrying off staves, logs, etc.

Alv. Gumberts, representing the wholesale clothing house of L. Lowenthal & Co., Evansville, Ind., and Philip Dahl, of Owensboro, were in town yesterday.

Gates & Co.'s new distillers will start on the first of March; capacity, five barrels a day.

The young ladies and gentlemen of Crowell will give an exhibition at school hall on or about the 23rd inst.

The Seely miners, M. Slavos, proprietor, are working 45 miners, and running full time.

Rockport Items.

February 20, 1882.

Editor Herald:
I do not think I would miss it far to say that we have had but one rain since Christmas, and that has been from that time to the present, and still she comes; it only stops a little while at a time, and then it seems to renew its force. It is thought by several that the river will get as high as it was in 1880.

Fighting is getting quite common in this place; there have been several combats lately. I reckon the boys want to pay some money to the town to fix up the streets with.

Street-walker & Co. are doing a general loading business in this place.

What is the matter with the Hartford school that we hear nothing said about it of late? Is the question asked by many.

G. W. Gordon, at Rockport, wishes to call the attention of his friends and others to the fact that he has brought on a fine lot of heavy groceries, sugar, coffee, confectioneries, etc., that he will sell very low for cash or country produce of all kinds at highest prices. You are also invited to go to Gordon's for a good hot meal at all hours.

ROCKPORT.

Mrs. Partington says.

Agents Wanted
OUR WILD INDIANS
For the most magnificent ever published book
W. E. DIBBLE & CO., 51 West Fourth St., Cin. O.

J. MONROE TAYLOR
ESTABLISHED 1841.
Gold Medal Washing Crystal.
Gold Medal Cream Tartar.

GOLD MEDAL
IS THE BEST

113 WATER ST., NEW YORK.

Are purer, better, stronger, and longer known in the market than any other article of the kind. Are always sure and reliable and never fail to insure the best results in every case. Ask your grocer for it, or give it a trial. Satisfaction guaranteed or no pay.

866 ft. free. No risk. Everything new. Capital not required. We will furnish you everything. Many are making fortunes. Ladies make as much as men, and boys and girls make great pay. Remember, if you want a business at which you can make great pay all the time you work, write for particulars to H. HALETT & CO., Portland, Maine.

NEW STORE!
New Stock!
Just Received at the
McHenry-Rockport Coal Co.'s Store,
At ECHOLS, KY., a large and well selected Stock of
DRY GOODS, CLOTHING, BOOTS, SHOES
And a nice assortment of DRESS GOODS. Also a full line of
GROCERIES AND HARDWARE!
And in fact everything the people needs. These goods have been bought for cash, in large quantities thus getting the lowest rates and the benefit of all discounts, and can and will be sold as low as the lowest and cheap as the cheapest. All kinds of
COUNTRY PRODUCE
Taken in exchange for goods. Now is the time and this is the place for bargains. W. D. Hamilton is the gentlemanly salesman, who will be found ever ready to supply the wants of customers.
W. G. DUNCAN, Secretary.

HARD PAN!

WHAT $1.00 BUYS

THE WORLD DEFIED!

To get up as large a lot of as good Tinware as is offered below and sell it at the price mentioned.

IT CAN'T BE DONE

BY ANYBODY ELSE. READ AND SEE.

1 Tin Milk Bucket, 1½ gal. - - - 25 cents
1 " " Cup, ½ gal. - - - 10 "
1 " " Pan, - - - 20 "
1 No. 1 Strong Milk Skimmer, - - - 10 "
1 Tin Coffee Pot, - - - 25 "
1 Pint Tin Cup, - - - 5 "
2 Tin Plates, - - - 10 "
1 Tin Dipper, - - - 10 "
1 Nutmeg Grater, - - - 10 "
$1.25

All of the above goods for $1.00

GEO. KLEIN & BRO.,

HARTFORD, KY.

MEYERSON PIANO CO.

Grand Offer for the next 60 days only.

PIANO STYLE 3A. Magnificent grand piano, 8 strings, 7 1/2 octaves, full patent repeating and large tone. Price $245.00. Free of freight and cartage. Terms, cash or 3 months. If you do not want it, return it at once. No money back. If you do not want it, return it at once. No money back. If you do not want it, return it at once. No money back.

J. L. FITCHEN, M. T. MERRILL,
FITCHEN & MERRILL,
THE
Tailors and Importers,
No. 220 Fourth Avenue,
Bet. Main and Market. LOUISVILLE, KY.

NEW STORE!
New Stock!
Just Received at the
McHenry-Rockport Coal Co.'s Store,
At ECHOLS, KY., a large and well selected Stock of
DRY GOODS, CLOTHING, BOOTS, SHOES
And a nice assortment of DRESS GOODS. Also a full line of
GROCERIES AND HARDWARE!
And in fact everything the people needs. These goods have been bought for cash, in large quantities thus getting the lowest rates and the benefit of all discounts, and can and will be sold as low as the lowest and cheap as the cheapest. All kinds of
COUNTRY PRODUCE
Taken in exchange for goods. Now is the time and this is the place for bargains. W. D. Hamilton is the gentlemanly salesman, who will be found ever ready to supply the wants of customers.
W. G. DUNCAN, Secretary.

THE HERALD.

LYCURGUS BARRETT - LOCAL EDITOR
WEDNESDAY, FEB. 22, 1882.

OUR AGENTS.

The following persons are authorized to receive subscriptions and renewals, advertising in the HERALD, orders for job work, etc., etc.:

JOHN T. MARTIN, Rosine.
WILL COOPER, Cincinnati.
DR. V. M. TAYLOR, McHenry.
DAVID ROGERS, Buford.
JNO. T. SMITH, Jr., Fordville.
JAS. E. SUTTON, Magan.
S. P. BENNETT, Carvallo.
J. E. BEAN, Sulphur Springs.
DR. G. R. SANDERS, Centertown.
JNO. T. NEAL, Caneyville.
T. J. BUNCH, Morgantown.
WILLIE MAY, Haynesville.
E. P. NEAL, Sutton.
T. C. FLOYD, Whitesville.
R. B. CULBERTSON, Rockport, Ky.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

For Sheriff.
THOMAS S. TAYLOR authorizes us to announce that he is a candidate for Sheriff of Ohio county, subject to the Democratic primary election, Saturday, March 11th, 1882.

For County Judge.
Judge BEN NEWTON authorizes us to announce that he is a candidate for re-election to the office of County Judge of Ohio county, subject to a Democratic primary election or convention.

P. H. ALFORD authorizes us to announce that he is a candidate for County Judge of Ohio county, subject to the Democratic primary election or convention.

CHARLES W. MASSIE authorizes us to announce that he is a candidate for County Judge of Ohio county, subject to the Democratic primary election or convention.

For County Clerk.
THOMAS J. SMITH authorizes us to announce that he is a candidate for County Clerk of Ohio county, subject to the Democratic primary election or convention.

THOMAS TAYLOR authorizes us to announce that he is a candidate for the office of County Clerk of Ohio county, subject to the Democratic primary election, Saturday, March 11th, 1882.

P. E. HOCKER authorizes us to announce that he is a candidate for County Clerk of Ohio county, subject to the Democratic primary election, Saturday, March 11th, 1882.

E. R. MURRELL authorizes us to announce that he is a candidate for the office of County Clerk of Ohio county, subject to the Democratic primary election, August 7th, 1882.

For County Attorney.
H. B. KINSOLVING authorizes us to announce that he is a candidate for County Attorney of Ohio county, subject to the Democratic primary election or convention.

C. M. PENDLETON authorizes us to announce that he is a candidate for County Attorney of Ohio county, subject to the action of the people at the polls, Election August 7, 1882.

For Justice.
ERASMUS L. SULLINGER authorizes us to announce that he is a candidate for re-election to the office of Justice of Ohio county, subject to a Democratic primary election or convention.

We are authorized to announce DAVID WESTERFIELD as a candidate for Justice of Ohio county, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

ALFRED C. PHILLIPS authorizes us to announce that he is a candidate for Justice of Ohio county, subject to a Democratic convention or primary election.

E. O. PORTER authorizes us to announce that he is a candidate for Justice of Ohio county, subject to a Democratic convention or primary election, Election August, 1882.

JAMES M. COLVER authorizes us to announce that he is a candidate for Justice of Ohio county, subject to the Democratic primary election or convention, Election August, 1882.

EWEN MORRIS authorizes us to announce that he is a candidate for Justice of Ohio county, subject to the Democratic primary election or convention.

THOMAS S. CRAIG authorizes us to announce that he is a candidate for Justice of Ohio county, subject to the Democratic primary election or convention.

JOHN MIDKIFF, Esq., authorizes us to announce that he is a candidate for Justice of Ohio county, subject to the Democratic primary election March 11, 1882.

For Assessor.
We are authorized to announce JNO. BENTON, of Rockport, as a candidate for the office of Assessor of Ohio county, subject to the action of the Democratic party. Election August 1882.

We are authorized to announce JNO. W. MOSELEY as a candidate for Assessor of Ohio county, subject to any action taken by the Democratic party.

JOHN W. TAYLOR authorizes us to announce that he is a candidate for Assessor of Ohio county, subject to a Democratic convention or primary election, Election August, 1882.

L. MARION STAELEH authorizes us to announce that he is a candidate for Assessor of Ohio county, subject to a Democratic primary election or convention, Election August, 1882. Read his card in this paper.

J. J. BOZARTH authorizes us to announce that he is a candidate for the office of Assessor of Ohio county, subject to a Democratic primary election or convention.

LUTHER C. DUKE authorizes us to announce that he is a candidate for Assessor of Ohio county, subject to the Democratic primary election or convention.

JOHN E. MAGAN authorizes us to announce that he is a candidate for Assessor of Ohio county, subject to the Democratic primary election or convention.

J. WARREN BARRETT authorizes us to announce him as a candidate for Assessor of Ohio county, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

WM. H. TAYLOR authorizes us to announce that he is a candidate for Assessor of Ohio county, subject to the Democratic primary election, Saturday, March 11, 1882.

WM. L. ROWE, Esq., authorizes us to announce that he is a candidate for Assessor of Ohio county, subject to the Democratic primary election or convention.

THOMAS R. BISHOP, of Centertown, authorizes us to announce that he is a candidate for the office of Assessor of Ohio county, Election August 7th, 1882.

Mr. W. P. ELLIS authorizes us to announce that he is a candidate for Assessor of Ohio county, subject to the Democratic primary election, Saturday, March 11th, 1882.

We are authorized to announce HIRAM C. MADDOX as a candidate for Assessor of Ohio county, subject to the Democratic primary election, Saturday, March 11th, 1882.

PERSONAL.

Mrs. Judge Ben Newton is visiting relatives at Buford.

Mrs. J. W. Hocker, of Cincinnati, is visiting the family of Mr. W. H. Maury, of this place.

Mrs. W. H. Maury, who has been very ill for some time past, is at this writing thought to be dying.

Jas. H. Anderson, of Anderson's Bazaar, left yesterday for Louisville to purchase goods for their branch house at Caneyville.

Miss Mary Rowe, who has been visiting relatives in Greenville for several weeks past, returned home last week.

Frank and Viola, son and daughter of Mr. A. C. Phillips, are sick with typhoid fever, but at this writing are improving.

From a postal card received Monday we learn that our old friend A. G. Rowe is at Mineral Wells, Palo Pinto county, Texas. We regret that his health is yet poor, but trust he will soon recuperate and be himself once more.

Thanks to Dr. John Morgan Berry for an invitation to the commencement exercises of medical department of Nashville and Vanderbilt University, to come off at Masonic Temple, Nashville, Tenn., February 25, 1882, at 7 o'clock, p. m.

Our sanctum was invaded last Wednesday and the dull monotony broken by a visit from Mrs. Lyon and her beautiful little girl and Mrs. Steele, of Evansville. Mrs. Lyon is from Chattanooga, Tenn., and has been sojourning in Hartford for a few months.

—Call on Tracy for all kinds of Farming Implements.

—Good butter is in demand at 40 cents per pound in this market.

—A positive cure for malaria, digestive and urinary troubles is found in Brown's Iron Bitters.

—The most noted men of modern times have publicly attested to the value of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral as a cure for coughs and colds.

—If you want a first-class one-horse plow, you had better subscribe at once for the HERALD. You thus have a chance to get one for nothing in our Gift Distribution. You can see the plow by calling at Dan F. Tracy's shop, Hartford, Ky.

—We call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of J. Monroe Taylor. This house has been established nearly 40 years, and their goods are celebrated for purity and strength. We would recommend a trial of their Gold Medal brands to all who desire superior cookery.

—Mr. George B. Exall, who was here recently to adjust a loss, has accepted a position with Messrs. Barbee & Castleman, managers of the Southern Department of the Royal and London & Lancashire Insurance Companies. Mr. Exall is one of the best and finest insurance men in the State, and will still further add to the deserved popularity of these two substantial companies.

—Being asked concerning the oil, Mr. Aug. Kieckhefer informed the questioner that St. Jacob's Oil had proved an excellent and most useful remedy in every family that had used it. A large majority of cases pronounced incurable have been entirely cured.—Wisconsin Central Wisconsin.

—At a meeting of the Board of Trustees of Hartford, recently held, the question of turning the streets of Hartford came before the Board and received the unanimous favor of the Board. They will receive bids for the delivery in Hartford of 500 wagon loads of limestone rock. This is a step in the right direction. Read their advertisement.

—C. M. Pendleton has had 1,000 cards printed, and in visiting around this summer he will leave one with those he calls upon. Charles says the card is very dark to correspond with his complexion, and the fellow at our elbow says it corresponds with the color of the party that Charles represents. However that may be, Charles is a clever young man, and will make a good County Attorney if he should be elected.

—Deputy Sheriff John B. Rogers arrested John H. Ryan under capias from the Ohio Circuit Court, Friday last, and lodged him in Uncle Ras' boarding-house at $2 per day until $50 are paid. The fine was for giving liquor to a minor. If the judgment had been for him to pay the fine or work it out at hard labor at $1 per day the fine would have been paid, or the court would have got some benefit, instead of having to board him for twenty-five days.

—Meal, meal, at the Red Front.

—Cabbage, cabbage, at the Red Front.

—Peanuts, just roasted, at the Red Front.

—Gum Boots, for raftsmen, at Anderson's Bazaar.

—Oranges, Lemons, Apples and Bananas at the Red Front.

—Every Plow sold by Tracy warranted to do good work; all steel.

—A good Sewing Machine for Twenty Dollars at Anderson's Bazaar.

—If you want nice Flour, lay it at the Red Front.

—Go to Tracy's for Excelsior and Avery Plows; all steel, and can be laid.

—Dr. Mott's Liver Pills are the best cathartic regulators.

—Tracy keeps the best Plows in the market; all steel, and can be sharpened.

—A big lot of Stevens' Shoes will be opened in a few days at Anderson's Bazaar.

—Buy your Seed Oats, Seed Potatoes, Field Seeds and Garden Seeds at the Red Front.

—The low price of dress goods and dress trimmings at Anderson's Bazaar is attracting a large trade.

—For Seed Oats, Seed Potatoes (Irish and sweet), Field Seeds, Garden Seeds, &c., go to the Red Front.

—WANTED.—500 wagon-loads of Limestone Rock, delivered in Hartford, Ky. For particulars see

W. T. KING.

—Chicken, turkeys and all kinds of country produce wanted at the Red Front.

—Born.—February 15th 1882, to the wife of Jno. J. Smith Esq., of Fordville, Ky., a daughter.

—Darn's Catarrh Snuff cures catarrh and all affections of the mucous membrane.

7-10-ly

The Union Sabbath School will convene at the Court-house next Sunday morning at 9 o'clock.

A. T. NALL, Sec. and Treas.

—Married.—At the residence of Chas. Huff, Esq., Fordville, Ky., on Wednesday, February 15, 1882, by Rev. W. K. Donaghy, Mr. J. R. Maddox and Miss Maggie Sutton.

W. T. Lee, Esq., of this paper, says: Being convinced of the efficacy of St. Jacob's Oil in curing rheumatism, I have no hesitancy in recommending it. —McClure's (Mich.) True Record.

—No remedy in the world ever came into such universal use, or has so fully won the confidence of mankind, as Ayer's Cherry Pectoral for the cure of coughs, colds and consumption.

—Mr. W. A. Gibson, of Hartford, who has been engaged in mercantile pursuits at Island Station, McLean county, has closed out there, and will open out at Caneyville in a few days.

—We learn that Hon. John Haynes, a former citizen of this county, died recently in Louisiana. He represented this county in the Lower House of the State Legislature in 1859 to 1861. He has a host of relatives and friends in the county.

—Married, in Morley, Mo., February 9, 1882, at the residence of the bride's father, by Rev. Balteer. Mr. John Paul to Miss America Spann. The attendants were Mr. Willie Mills and Miss Ella Spann. May happiness and prosperity attend them, and may their future be as bright as the present.

—Dr. G. W. Beeler, dentist, is at Beaver Dam, where he will remain this week, ready and prepared to do any kind of work in the dental line. He will be in Hartford next week, where he has permanently located. Persons wishing anything done in this line would do well to call.

—The Hartford College News, a four column, four page paper, devoted to the interest of Hartford College and education, will be issued from this office some time this week. Messrs. Dulin and Hackett are the editors, and Messrs. Maggie King and Maimie Anderson associate editors. The paper will be a monthly.

—T. E. Richey obtained the formula for his Anti-Malarial Pills, from one of the best physicians of America. For Chills, Biliunousness, Costiveness, Sick Headache, &c., nothing equals them. He has sold thousands of boxes; and is now putting them in the stores of the Green River country, hoping his friends will give them a trial.

8-31f.

—We are pained to announce the death of Mrs. James A. Rowe, of this place, which sad event took place last Monday night of typhoid pneumonia. She leaves a husband and two children. The family and relatives have our condolences. At this writing it is not known when or where her remains will be interred.

—How can business men of Hartford and Ohio county expect our patronage, expect us to be constantly talking up the public interests of the town and county, when they are starving us out by sending abroad to patronize printing establishments. What do they gain by this. We have time and again proposed to duplicate any bill of job work, done anywhere, and by spending their money with us they foster, encourage and build up a home institution, that will in turn scatter money with them.

—The Standford Hotel, Louisville, Ky., is now one of the best hotels in the place. It has been enlarged about fifty per cent. during the past year, has a new and spacious dining-hall, a nice reading-room, a very neat and comfortable reception room, an excellent elevator, and is perfect in every respect. The management of the hotel is unsurpassed, the fare good as appetite could wish for, and in every respect the hotel is perfect. It is near the L. & N. depot, where all southern and western Kentucky visitors reach and leave the city, and is very convenient, as it saves hack or omnibus fares. In short, the Standford offers more and better accommodations for less money than any other hotel in Louisville. Do not take our word for it, but try it and be convinced.

—Meal, meal, at the Red Front.

—Cabbage, cabbage, at the Red Front.

—Peanuts, just roasted, at the Red Front.

—Gum Boots, for raftsmen, at Anderson's Bazaar.

—Oranges, Lemons, Apples and Bananas at the Red Front.

—Every Plow sold by Tracy warranted to do good work; all steel.

—A good Sewing Machine for Twenty Dollars at Anderson's Bazaar.

—If you want nice Flour, lay it at the Red Front.

—Go to Tracy's for Excelsior and Avery Plows; all steel, and can be laid.

—Dr. Mott's Liver Pills are the best cathartic regulators.

—Tracy keeps the best Plows in the market; all steel, and can be sharpened.

—A big lot of Stevens' Shoes will be opened in a few days at Anderson's Bazaar.

—Buy your Seed Oats, Seed Potatoes, Field Seeds and Garden Seeds at the Red Front.

—The low price of dress goods and dress trimmings at Anderson's Bazaar is attracting a large trade.

—For Seed Oats, Seed Potatoes (Irish and sweet), Field Seeds, Garden Seeds, &c., go to the Red Front.

—WANTED.—500 wagon-loads of Limestone Rock, delivered in Hartford, Ky. For particulars see

W. T. KING.

—Chicken, turkeys and all kinds of country produce wanted at the Red Front.

—Born.—February 15th 1882, to the wife of Jno. J. Smith Esq., of Fordville, Ky., a daughter.

—Darn's Catarrh Snuff cures catarrh and all affections of the mucous membrane.

The Union Sabbath School will convene at the Court-house next Sunday morning at 9 o'clock.

A. T. NALL, Sec. and Treas.

—Married.—At the residence of Chas. Huff, Esq., Fordville, Ky., on Wednesday, February 15, 1882, by Rev. W. K. Donaghy, Mr. J. R. Maddox and Miss Maggie Sutton.

W. T. Lee, Esq., of this paper, says: Being convinced of the efficacy of St. Jacob's Oil in curing rheumatism, I have no hesitancy in recommending it. —McClure's (Mich.) True Record.

—No remedy in the world ever came into such universal use, or has so fully won the confidence of mankind, as Ayer's Cherry Pectoral for the cure of coughs, colds and consumption.

—Mr. W. A. Gibson, of Hartford, who has been engaged in mercantile pursuits at Island Station, McLean county, has closed out there, and will open out at Caneyville in a few days.

—We learn that Hon. John Haynes, a former citizen of this county, died recently in Louisiana. He represented this county in the Lower House of the State Legislature in 1859 to 1861. He has a host of relatives and friends in the county.

—Married, in Morley, Mo., February 9, 1882, at the residence of the bride's father, by Rev. Balteer. Mr. John Paul to Miss America Spann. The attendants were Mr. Willie Mills and Miss Ella Spann. May happiness and prosperity attend them, and may their future be as bright as the present.

—Dr. G. W. Beeler, dentist, is at Beaver Dam, where he will remain this week, ready and prepared to do any kind of work in the dental line. He will be in Hartford next week, where he has permanently located. Persons wishing anything done in this line would do well to call.

—The Hartford College News, a four column, four page paper, devoted to the interest of Hartford College and education, will be issued from this office some time this week. Messrs. Dulin and Hackett are the editors, and Messrs. Maggie King and Maimie Anderson associate editors. The paper will be a monthly.

—T. E. Richey obtained the formula for his Anti-Malarial Pills, from one of the best physicians of America. For Chills, Biliunousness, Costiveness, Sick Headache, &c., nothing equals them. He has sold thousands of boxes; and is now putting them in the stores of the Green River country, hoping his friends will give them a trial.

8-31f.

—We are pained to announce the death of Mrs. James A. Rowe, of this place, which sad event took place last Monday night of typhoid pneumonia. She leaves a husband and two children. The family and relatives have our condolences. At this writing it is not known when or where her remains will be interred.

—How can business men of Hartford and Ohio county expect our patronage, expect us to be constantly talking up the public interests of the town and county, when they are starving us out by sending abroad to patronize printing establishments. What do they gain by this. We have time and again proposed to duplicate any bill of job work, done anywhere, and by spending their money with us they foster, encourage and build up a home institution, that will in turn scatter money with them.

—The Standford Hotel, Louisville, Ky., is now one of the best hotels in the place. It has been enlarged about fifty per cent. during the past year, has a new and spacious dining-hall, a nice reading-room, a very neat and comfortable reception room, an excellent elevator, and is perfect in every respect. The management of the hotel is unsurpassed, the fare good as appetite could wish for, and in every respect the hotel is perfect. It is near the L. & N. depot, where all southern and western Kentucky visitors reach and leave the city, and is very convenient, as it saves hack or omnibus fares. In short, the Standford offers more and better accommodations for less money than any other hotel in Louisville. Do not take our word for it, but try it and be convinced.

Editor Herald:
Plenty of candidates, mud and water. There is one thousand inhabitants in Morganfield, and there are but two Republicans—one of them a blacksmith, the other a carpenter—and every one of the candidates are Democrats.
No news. ODOX.

—Write to Mrs. Lydia E. Pinkham, No. 233 Western Avenue, Lynn, Mass., for pamphlets relative to the curative properties of her Vegetable Compound in all female complaints.

—Mr. N. L. Fitch, of the firm of Fitch & Merrill, tailors and clothiers, Louisville, Ky., will be here February 24th inst., with a full line of samples for spring and summer clothing for men, youths and boys. They are first-class tailors, give entire satisfaction in fit, quality of goods, and prices, and our people will find it to their interest to reserve their orders until Mr. Fitch comes. Remember the time: February 24th, 1882. 7-21.

A Card.
To the Democracy of Ohio County:
FELLOW-CITIZENS:—Owing to my present business relations, I resort to this method of presenting myself to the public as a candidate for the office of Assessor of Ohio county.

There being a probability of an early convention of the Democratic party to which I shall submit my name for nomination as a candidate for the office of Assessor of Ohio county.

These being the qualifications necessary to make an efficient public servant. It has ever been my object in all my dealings with the public to merit by my attention to every trust confided in me the approbation of all.

I shall, if possible, approach my fellow-citizens personally before the convention, in the meantime, I bespeak a kindly consideration of my claims by each member of the party.

Respectfully,
MARIO STAELEH.

Democratic Candidates, Attention.

The Democratic Executive Committee are now making out the poll books for the primary election. Each candidate who desires his name to appear therein must call at once on J. E. Fogle, Secretary of the committee, and authorize the insertion of his name, and deposit $1.00 to be used in defraying the expenses for making poll books and other expenses incident to holding the election. No candidate's name will be entered on the poll books who fails to comply with this request.

Dr. Green's Oxygenated Bitters.

Is the oldest and best remedy for dyspepsia, biliousness, malaria, indigestion, all disorders of the stomach, and all diseases indicating an impure condition of the blood, kidneys, liver, skin, etc.

Officers of Primary Election.

At a meeting of the Democratic Executive Committee of Ohio county the following persons were appointed and authorized to hold the Primary Election hereafter designated to be held on the 11th day of March, 1882:

HARTFORD.
Geo. W. Bunker and J. H. Patton, Judges; J. H. Weller, Clerk; L. Barrett, Sheriff.

BEAVER DAM.
A. J. Austin and J. L. Rander, Judges; J. H. Barnes, Clerk; John Fogle, Sheriff.

ROSEINE.
Henry Baltzell and Dr. Hammond, Judges; W. H. Lewis, Clerk; Hon. Duke, Sheriff.

SULPHUR SPRINGS.
W. B. Hayward and Fred. Andros, Judges; Oscar Hines, Clerk; C. X. Bean, Sheriff.

FORDVILLE.
M. M. Truman and Ben Wallace, Judges; T. P. Ralph, Clerk; J. L. Harder, Sheriff.

ELLIS.
C. S. McElroy and Jordan Haynes, Judges; Norville Kelley, Clerk; C. W. Phillips, Sheriff.

BARRETT'S.
Ben Taylor and Jacob Weller, Judges; Frank Westerfield, Clerk; Wilson Chapman, Sheriff.

BEYFORD.
William Riley and C. W. Hussey, Judges; Clint Fields, Clerk; Alex. Bell, Sheriff.

CENTERTOWN.
Sam Morton and Mat Neal, Judges; Virgil Ingram, Clerk; W. D. Barnard, Sheriff.

ROCKPORT.
Z. W. Shultz and Dr. S. A. Jackson, Judges; James E. Maddox, Clerk; J. M. Casbeer, Sheriff.

COOL SPRINGS.
W. D. Coleman and Ellis Chapman, Judges; George W. Quinn, Clerk; E. Jackson, Sheriff.

CROMWELL.
D. A. Barnes and George W. Taylor, Judges; C. C. Montague, Clerk; T. Morton, Sheriff.

STEWARTSVILLE.
S. M. James and Harrison Keown, Judges; Elmore Stewart, Clerk; Geo. O'Bannon, Sheriff.

Should any of the officers so appointed fail to attend, or to serve when in attendance, then a majority of those so attending may choose others to fill the vacancies. None but Democrats are expected to vote in this election, and only those who have heretofore affiliated with the Democratic party, and who will support the whole ticket nominated by this Primary are entitled to vote therein. The officers will open and close the polls at the usual times, and after completion certify the result, and the Sheriffs are directed to deliver the poll-books to the Secretary of this Committee on or before the 13th day of March, 1882, and it will on that day proceed to count the votes and declare who have been nominated to fill the said offices. E. D. WALKER, Chm'n. J. E. FOGLE, Sec'y.

To the Ladies of Hartford.

A. J. Miller & Co., Steam Dye-House, Owensboro, Ky., are prepared for cleaning and dyeing Ladies' Silk and Wool Dresses—in fact, all kinds of material, such as Silk Velvets, Satins, Crapes, Velvets and Shawls, etc. Ostrich Plumes cleaned and dyed any color, Damask Curtains, Piano Covers, Lace Curtains, Point Lace, Kid Gloves and Slippers cleaned handsome as new at reasonable prices. Colors and finish they warrant equal to new, and will not rub off. All work turned out with neatness and dispatch. We cheerfully recommend the above house, as we have seen splendid specimens of their work.

DENTIST.

Dr. Beeler, dentist, is at the Hartford House, prepared to do all kinds of dental work. Artificial teeth, a specialty. Silver, gold and white fillings from $1 up. Old plates repaired. Teeth extracted without the use of gas or chloroform—a new process. Will be at residence on notice. Dr. Beeler is assisted by Dr. F. C. Sadtler. Have your work done at once. 44-1f.

No Sales at March Court.

Recommendations from a Journal of Health.

Try popovers for nausea.
Try cranberry for malaria.
Try ginger ale for stomach cramps.
Try clam broth for a weak stomach.
Try cranberry poultice for erysipelas.
Try gargling beer for the cure of sore throat.
Try a wet towel to the back of the neck when sleepless.
Try swallowing saliva when troubled with sour stomach.
Try eating fresh radishes and yellow turnips for gravel.
Try eating onions and horseradish to relieve dropsical swellings.
Try buttermilk for removal of freckles, tan and butternut stains.
Try the crop, tipper when a child is likely to be troubled in that way.
Try a hot flannel over the seat of neuralgia pain, and renew frequently.
Try taking your cod-liver oil in tomato catsup, if you want to make it palatable.
Try hard cider—a wineglassful three times a day—for ague and rheumatism.
Try taking a nap in the afternoon if you are going to be late in the evening.
Try breathing the fumes of turpentine or carbolic acid to remove whooping-cough.
Try a cloth wrung out from cold water put about the neck at night for sore throat.
Try snuffing powdered borax up the nostrils for catarrhal "cold in the head."
Try an extra pair of stockings outside of your shoes when traveling in cold weather.
Try walking with your hands behind you if you find yourself becoming tired forward.
Try a silk handkerchief over the face when obliged to go against a cold, piercing wind.
Try planting sunflowers in your garden if compelled to live in a malarial neighborhood.
Try a saturated solution of bicarbonate of soda (baking soda) in diarrhetic troubles; give freely.
Try a newspaper over the chest, beneath your vest, as a chest-protector in extremely cold weather.

"Beechpains."

New, quick, complete cure 4 days, urinary affections, smarting, frequent or difficult urination, kidney diseases, $1. at druggists, Ky, Depot, Arthur, Peter & Co., Louisville, Ky.

An Essay on Man.

Man was made in dry weather. He was made of dust. Quite a number have never recovered from their creation; they are still dry.

It's man's nature to be discontented. Adam had a monopoly, but he could not be happy without someone to crow over.

For awhile he knocked around over the Garden of Eden, and then went to the house, but he had to cook his own supper; there was no stove-wood chopped, and things were in a bad shape generally.

The next morning it was the same way. He had to make his own bed and sweep out. His stockings were dirty, and his arm would go through a hole in his sleeve. So he was dissatisfied.

The next night when he went to sleep the Creator punished him by making a woman—a great misfortune to the race.

Pursuit in this case is said to be sweeter than possession. After Eve got acquainted with her mate, she vowed that all the men in the world were not worth Adam.

Goliath was a man. He was a bigger man than Grant, but he couldn't stand as many slings.

The family man resembles the oyster on half shell.

The shell is at home—the soft side abroad.

Some men carry their resemblance in their faces. Many men have countenances like oysters.

Job is said to have been a very patient man.

He had boils all over him. Men now boil all over themselves when the preacher reaches "thirteenthly" on a hot day, and never think of the grandeur of Job's example.

It is natural for a man to disregard a good example.—Boston Herald.

An Angel's Touch.

The San Francisco News-Letter tells this touching incident: One evening not long ago a little girl of nine or ten entered a place in which there is a bakery, grocery and saloon in one, and asked for five cents' worth of tea.

"How's your mother?" asked the boy who came forward to wait on her.

"Awful sick, and ain't had anything to eat all day."

"The boy was just then called to wait on some men who entered the saloon and the girl sat down. In five minutes she was nodding, and in seven she was sound asleep and leaning her head against a barrel, while she held the poor old nickel in a tight grip between her thumb and finger. One of the men saw her as he came from the bar and after asking who she was said:

"Say, you drunks, see here! Here we've been pouring down whisky when this poor child and her mother want bread. Here's a two-dollar bill that says I've got some feeling left."

"And I can add a dollar," observed another.

"And I'll give another."

They made up a purse of an even $5, and the spokesman carefully put the bill between two of the sleeper's fingers, drew the nickel away, and whispered to his comrades:

"Just look a-ther! the gal's dream-ing."

So she was. A big tear had rolled over from her closed eyelid, but her face was covered with a smile. The men tip-toed out, and the clerk walked over and touched the sleeping child, and she awoke with a laugh, and cried out:

"What a beautiful dream! Ma wasn't sick any more, and we had lots to eat and to wear, and my hand burns yet where an angel touched it."

When she discovered that her nickel had been replaced by a bill, one dollar of which she had down with all she could carry, she innocently said:

"Well, now, but ma won't hardly believe that you sent up to heaven and got an angel to come down and clerk in your grocery."

He Held the Case.

One day a notorious horse-thief had been captured and brought into court to be committed. While the examination was progressing the prosecuting attorney and the sheriff stepped to the door to counsel. The thief seized the opportunity, and clasped in the 'squire's hand a $20 gold piece, with the remark:

"Hold the case until dark; then dismiss for error in the complaint. It sets forth that a horse had been stolen, while the evidence shows it was a mare." The case went tripping along until the sun had dropped behind the hills and darkness shadowed the land. Then the court raised the horse and mare question and dismissed the prisoner. Before a new complaint could be made he was far under the cover of darkness. The 'squire then adjourned the court, and went straight home in high glee. Arriving there he clapped the "double saw-buck" over his eye and capering around the floor like a young goat. His good wife, noticing the wealth, made some remark about apparel. "Nothing to wear, eh?" said the 'squire. "A calico dress, eh?" Supper being over, he repaired to the barn to feed his beast. But he was gone. He had a bogus coin in his pocket, while the thief was beside his beautiful mare over the hills and far away.—San Francisco Chronicle.

Strange Fatality.

Mr. James Minor, a wealthy bachelor of Nelson county, and a brother of Hon. William E. Minor, of this county, possesses a history so much out of the common run that it is well worthy of being put on record. He is literally a fire-haunted man. All his life he has been persistently followed by a series of strange fatalities that are in themselves almost enough to cause the superstitious to look upon his visits as something to be dreaded. When a child, Mr. Minor's mother was accidentally burned to death. At the death of his father he inherited the homestead farm, the dwelling on which was at that day one of the finest residences in Nelson county, having been erected at a cost of $100,000. It caught on fire and was consumed to ashes. He erected a new house of a like cost, only to become in his turn food for the hungry flames. He subsequently engaged in the lumber business, and lost a large and valuable lot of lumber by fire. He then visited his brother, residing in Holt's Bottom, this county, and in two or three days after his arrival the dwelling of the latter was consumed by fire. He then went to Kansas to visit his stepmother, and while there was conversing about the strange fatality that seemed to dog him through life, the kitchen of her house burst into flames. It turning to Kentucky and visiting at the house of a relative in his native county, while the family were discussing his bad luck during the course of conversation his host assuring him that while they were glad to see him, of course, they were rather afraid that they would be burned up in consequence of his visit—the kitchen of that house was also discovered to be on fire. From thence he proceeded to visit the house of another relative in the same county, and, as usual, the subject of the remarkable fatality that seemed to pursue him formed the staple of conversation. A broom in the room was ignited by a spark from the fire, whereupon the young lady of the house remarked that she had lost some fire in the parlor, and she believed she would go and see if everything was right. Opening the parlor door, the apartment was discovered to be in flames. If any county in any State can produce a man who can truthfully point to a life filled with such strange experiences, or anything at all approaching them, now is the time to bring him to the front.—Beech-croft News.

There is a "monstrous Green and Barren River monopoly" in this State, says the Owensboro Messenger. Son, there are many river monopolies, like-wise land monopolies, but you can't stuff it down us with a forty-foot pole that there is one of them which can be truthfully called either green or barren.—Louisville Argus. We are willing to concede the truth of the conclusion of our esteemed contemporary. Any one who will read and carefully study the works that compose the charter of the Green and Barren River Navigation Company will at once conclude that no green hand or barren mind got it up. It was concocted in fraud, passed through the Legislature by bribery, and stands on record as one of the most adroitly planned deceptions that was ever perpetrated upon an innocent and suffering people.—Owensboro Messenger.

No Middle Man.

A good farmer in the back part of the county, who is noted for his crops, crabbed ways, being very low with typhoid fever, was requested by his wife to have the minister to call upon him. "What for?" he asked. "To pray for you, of course," was the reply. "Me?" shouted the old man. "I'm a Granger clear to the backbone and never permit any middle man to fool around between me and Almighty God." The minister was not called.—Owensboro Post.

A Light Dress.

A missionary orator stood on a Sydney platform. Before him was a large audience, which included many daintily mannered ladies. He had to describe the "custom" of certain savages, and of course everybody wanted to know how the darkies dressed, and this is how he put it. They had, he said, only a single article of attire, and that was a fig-leaf, which was still on its native tree, a quarter of a mile off.

Kidney Diseases.

Kidney diseases afflict the greater part of the human race, and they are constantly on the increase, but where the virtue of the Kidney-Wort has become known, they are held in check and speedily cured. Let those who have had to constantly dose spirits of nitre and such stuff, give this great remedy a trial and be cured. In the dry form it is most economical, in the liquid the most convenient.—Pillsbury Press.

How to Pluck Poultry.

I have known persons on market day to go out and kill twelve or fifteen fowls, and to bring them into a room where there would be half a dozen women and boys, pulling a few feathers at a time, between their thumb and forefinger, to prevent tearing them.

Now for the benefit of such, I will give you a plan: Hang the fowl by the feet by a small cord; then with a small knife give one cut across the upper jaw opposite the corners of the mouth; after the blood has stopped running in a stream, place the point of the knife in the groove in the upper part of the mouth, run the blade up into the back part of the head, which will cause a twitching of muscles. Now is your time, for every other yield as if by magic, and there is no danger of tearing the most tender chick. Before he attempts to flap you can have him as bare as the day he came out of the egg.

The Local Paper.

Week after week we come across men who don't take a local paper—because it is so small; because they know all the news in town; because they take some city weekly; or for some other equally satisfactory reason. Some of these very men, too, are the ones who ask favors of us—the insertion of a marriage notice, or a long obituary, or some other item of interest chiefly to themselves or their own immediate locality. Now, why should people support their local paper? Because it is their local paper that writes their local history, that advances their local industries, that educates the people in the politics of the county. What interest have the city papers in the interior towns that a man should take one of them in preference to his home paper? Every citizen in the county should feel it his duty to support his local paper, and every business man who has a sense of gratitude to his town should feel that he ought to advertise. While the newspapers are writing up the town and striving to make it a business center there are business men who profit by the enterprise of the newspapers, and boast that it never costs them a cent.—Hart County Democrat.

The Pension Scum.

The question of sustaining or repealing the pension arrears act will probably be reached in Congress to-day, under the resolution of Senator Ingalls affirming the justice of the measure as it now exists. There is a strong pressure from interested parties in Washington to continue it in force. The only argument in favor of the pension arrears act is based on demagoguery. The cry is that it is an act of justice to the soldiers who "served the country" and "saved the Union," and "who are entitled to as much consideration as the people who bought government bonds during the war." If it were really a question affecting the rights of the soldiers, no matter how much the sum at issue, there would be no doubt of its meeting the best judgment of the country. Every patriotic American feels that no matter what the war of the rebellion entitled upon us we are bound to meet the obligation to the extent of the nation's resources. But the pension arrears act was passed for the benefit of soldiers, but is a contrivance arranged by claim agents, pension lawyers and an audacious and thoroughly corrupt lobby in Washington. It has been shown that in a large percentage of cases the claims against the government for pension arrears have been fraudulent. The Commissioner of Pensions has asked for the appointment of four hundred agents—detectives practically—who are to be sent out to the pension rolls and discover the fraudulent pensioners. A measure of this nature, honeycombed with corruption, based upon false pretenses, of no value to the real soldiers of the war, passed in the interest of a corrupt lobby, and destined unless repealed to take from the treasury more than a thousand million dollars is the highest kind of a crime. We trust that the friends of honesty and justice will continue to war upon this most iniquitous enactment until it is repealed.—N. Y. Herald.

A Bright Boy.

An editor of an Illinois paper took a boy to learn the printer's trade. He was careful to impress upon his mind the necessity of obedience and of doing everything thoroughly. After preliminary instruction, the lad was given a stick and a rule, and taken to a case to wrestle with a piece of copy.

The editor went off to a political convention. The other boys in the office paid but little attention to the new recruit, and when the editor returned half a day later, he found the boy down upon his knees, searching for something on the floor.

"What's the matter, Johnny?" said he.

"Why, I dropped a type before I got the first line set," replied the boy, "and you told me before I went to work, that whenever I dropped a type I must stop and pick it up before I did anything else. I've been looking for that darned type all day, and I can't find it."

Need we say that boy succeeded in business? He grew up, went west, and two weeks ago he was hanged in Nevada for horse stealing.

BE NOT DECEIVED

By Plasters claiming to be an improvement on ALLCOCK'S POROUS PLASTERS.

ALLCOCK'S is the original and only genuine Porous Plaster; all other so-called Porous Plasters are imitations. Beware of them.

See that you get an ALLCOCK PLASTER, which he guarantees has effected more and quicker cures than any other external Remedy.

SOLD BY ALL DRUGGISTS.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS are a certain cure for all diseases requiring a complete tonic; especially indigestion, dyspepsia, intermitting fevers, loss of appetite, loss of strength, lack of energy, etc. Enriches the blood, strengthens the muscles, and gives new life to the nerves. Acts like a charm on the digestive organs, removing all dyspeptic symptoms, such as tasting the food, belching, heat in the stomach, heartburn, etc. The only Iron Preparation that will not blacken the teeth or give headache. Sold by all Druggists at $1.00 a bottle.

BROWN CHEMICAL CO., Baltimore, Md.

See that you get BROWN'S IRON BITTERS, and beware of imitations.

J. A. TAYLOR, DENTIST

FREDERICK STREET, OVER SCOTT'S JEWELRY STORE, OWENSBORO, KY.

The Most Complete Dental Office in the West. Reduced rates for work, and satisfaction guaranteed.

Dr. W. B. ARMSTRONG, formerly of Hartford, Conn., is connected with this office, and would be pleased to have his friends call on him there.

CATARRH

Branchitis, Asthma, Bronchitis, Croup, Whooping Cough, Hay Fever, Eczema, Scabies, Ringworm, and all other skin diseases, cured by Dr. J. A. Taylor's Catarrh Remedy. Price, 25 cents per bottle. Sold by all Druggists.

THE NEWSPAPER.

ABLE, NEWSY, GOOD AND CHEAP.

Weekly Courier-Journal

The Courier-Journal, Henry Watterson, its editor, is a man of high reputation and acknowledged leadership. Its news is the best, its editorial writing is the best, its circulation is the largest of any paper in this country. It is a paper of the people, for the people, and by the people. It is a paper of the future, for the future, and by the future. It is a paper of the world, for the world, and by the world. It is a paper of the nation, for the nation, and by the nation. It is a paper of the state, for the state, and by the state. It is a paper of the county, for the county, and by the county. It is a paper of the town, for the town, and by the town. It is a paper of the village, for the village, and by the village. It is a paper of the farm, for the farm, and by the farm. It is a paper of the school, for the school, and by the school. It is a paper of the church, for the church, and by the church. It is a paper of the home, for the home, and by the home. It is a paper of the heart, for the heart, and by the heart. It is a paper of the soul, for the soul, and by the soul. It is a paper of the spirit, for the spirit, and by the spirit. It is a paper of the mind, for the mind, and by the mind. It is a paper of the body, for the body, and by the body. It is a paper of the senses, for the senses, and by the senses. It is a paper of the passions, for the passions, and by the passions. It is a paper of the affections, for the affections, and by the affections. It is a paper of the intellect, for the intellect, and by the intellect. It is a paper of the emotions, for the emotions, and by the emotions. It is a paper of the will, for the will, and by the will. It is a paper of the power, for the power, and by the power. It is a paper of the glory, for the glory, and by the glory. It is a paper of the honor, for the honor, and by the honor. It is a paper of the respect, for the respect, and by the respect. It is a paper of the admiration, for the admiration, and by the admiration. It is a paper of the love, for the love, and by the love. It is a paper of the friendship, for the friendship, and by the friendship. It is a paper of the brotherhood, for the brotherhood, and by the brotherhood. It is a paper of the sisterhood, for the sisterhood, and by the sisterhood. It is a paper of the humanity, for the humanity, and by the humanity. It is a paper of the world, for the world, and by the world. It is a paper of the nation, for the nation, and by the nation. It is a paper of the state, for the state, and by the state. It is a paper of the county, for the county, and by the county. It is a paper of the town, for the town, and by the town. It is a paper of the village, for the village, and by the village. It is a paper of the farm, for the farm, and by the farm. It is a paper of the school, for the school, and by the school. It is a paper of the church, for the church, and by the church. It is a paper of the home, for the home, and by the home. It is a paper of the heart, for the heart, and by the heart. It is a paper of the soul, for the soul, and by the soul. It is a paper of the spirit, for the spirit, and by the spirit. It is a paper of the mind, for the mind, and by the mind. It is a paper of the body, for the body, and by the body. It is a paper of the senses, for the senses, and by the senses. It is a paper of the passions, for the passions, and by the passions. It is a paper of the affections, for the affections, and by the affections. It is a paper of the intellect, for the intellect, and by the intellect. It is a paper of the emotions, for the emotions, and by the emotions. It is a paper of the will, for the will, and by the will. It is a paper of the power, for the power, and by the power. It is a paper of the glory, for the glory, and by the glory. It is a paper of the honor, for the honor, and by the honor. It is a paper of the respect, for the respect, and by the respect. It is a paper of the admiration, for the admiration, and by the admiration. It is a paper of the love, for the love, and by the love. It is a paper of the friendship, for the friendship, and by the friendship. It is a paper of the brotherhood, for the brotherhood, and by the brotherhood. It is a paper of the sisterhood, for the sisterhood, and by the sisterhood. It is a paper of the humanity, for the humanity, and by the humanity. It is a paper of the world, for the world, and by the world. It is a paper of the nation, for the nation, and by the nation. It is a paper of the state, for the state, and by the state. It is a paper of the county, for the county, and by the county. It is a paper of the town, for the town, and by the town. It is a paper of the village, for the village, and by the village. It is a paper of the farm, for the farm, and by the farm. It is a paper of the school, for the school, and by the school. It is a paper of the church, for the church, and by the church. It is a paper of the home, for the home, and by the home. It is a paper of the heart, for the heart, and by the heart. It is a paper of the soul, for the soul, and by the soul. It is a paper of the spirit, for the spirit, and by the spirit. It is a paper of the mind, for the mind, and by the mind. It is a paper of the body, for the body, and by the body. It is a paper of the senses, for the senses, and by the senses. It is a paper of the passions, for the passions, and by the passions. It is a paper of the affections, for the affections, and by the affections. It is a paper of the intellect, for the intellect, and by the intellect. It is a paper of the emotions, for the emotions, and by the emotions. It is a paper of the will, for the will, and by the will. It is a paper of the power, for the power, and by the power. It is a paper of the glory, for the glory, and by the glory. It is a paper of the honor, for the honor, and by the honor. It is a paper of the respect, for the respect, and by the respect. It is a paper of the admiration, for the admiration, and by the admiration. It is a paper of the love, for the love, and by the love. It is a paper of the friendship, for the friendship, and by the friendship. It is a paper of the brotherhood, for the brotherhood, and by the brotherhood. It is a paper of the sisterhood, for the sisterhood, and by the sisterhood. It is a paper of the humanity, for the humanity, and by the humanity. It is a paper of the world, for the world, and by the world. It is a paper of the nation, for the nation, and by the nation. It is a paper of the state, for the state, and by the state. It is a paper of the county, for the county, and by the county. It is a paper of the town, for the town, and by the town. It is a paper of the village, for the village, and by the village. It is a paper of the farm, for the farm, and by the farm. It is a paper of the school, for the school, and by the school. It is a paper of the church, for the church, and by the church. It is a paper of the home, for the home, and by the home. It is a paper of the heart, for the heart, and by the heart. It is a paper of the soul, for the soul, and by the soul. It is a paper of the spirit, for the spirit, and by the spirit. It is a paper of the mind, for the mind, and by the mind. It is a paper of the body, for the body, and by the body. It is a paper of the senses, for the senses, and by the senses. It is a paper of the passions, for the passions, and by the passions. It is a paper of the affections, for the affections, and by the affections. It is a paper of the intellect, for the intellect, and by the intellect. It is a paper of the emotions, for the emotions, and by the emotions. It is a paper of the will, for the will, and by the will. It is a paper of the power, for the power, and by the power. It is a paper of the glory, for the glory, and by the glory. It is a paper of the honor, for the honor, and by the honor. It is a paper of the respect, for the respect, and by the respect. It is a paper of the admiration, for the admiration, and by the admiration. It is a paper of the love, for the love, and by the love. It is a paper of the friendship, for the friendship, and by the friendship. It is a paper of the brotherhood, for the brotherhood, and by the brotherhood. It is a paper of the sisterhood, for the sisterhood, and by the sisterhood. It is a paper of the humanity, for the humanity, and by the humanity. It is a paper of the world, for the world, and by the world. It is a paper of the nation, for the nation, and by the nation. It is a paper of the state, for the state, and by the state. It is a paper of the county, for the county, and by the county. It is a paper of the town, for the town, and by the town. It is a paper of the village, for the village, and by the village. It is a paper of the farm, for the farm, and by the farm. It is a paper of the school, for the school, and by the school. It is a paper of the church, for the church, and by the church. It is a paper of the home, for the home, and by the home. It is a paper of the heart, for the heart, and by the heart. It is a paper of the soul, for the soul, and by the soul. It is a paper of the spirit, for the spirit, and by the spirit. It is a paper of the mind, for the mind, and by the mind. It is a paper of the body, for the body, and by the body. It is a paper of the senses, for the senses, and by the senses. It is a paper of the passions, for the passions, and by the passions. It is a paper of the affections, for the affections, and by the affections. It is a paper of the intellect, for the intellect, and by the intellect. It is a paper of the emotions, for the emotions, and by the emotions. It is a paper of the will, for the will, and by the will. It is a paper of the power, for the power, and by the power. It is a paper of the glory, for the glory, and by the glory. It is a paper of the honor, for the honor, and by the honor. It is a paper of the respect, for the respect, and by the respect. It is a paper of the admiration, for the admiration, and by the admiration. It is a paper of the love, for the love, and by the love. It is a paper of the friendship, for the friendship, and by the friendship. It is a paper of the brotherhood, for the brotherhood, and by the brotherhood. It is a paper of the sisterhood, for the sisterhood, and by the sisterhood. It is a paper of the humanity, for the humanity, and by the humanity. It is a paper of the world, for the world, and by the world. It is a paper of the nation, for the nation, and by the nation. It is a paper of the state, for the state, and by the state. It is a paper of the county, for the county, and by the county. It is a paper of the town, for the town, and by the town. It is a paper of the village, for the village, and by the village. It is a paper of the farm, for the farm, and by the farm. It is a paper of the school, for the school, and by the school. It is a paper of the church, for the church, and by the church. It is a paper of the home, for the home, and by the home. It is a paper of the heart, for the heart, and by the heart. It is a paper of the soul, for the soul, and by the soul. It is a paper of the spirit, for the spirit, and by the spirit. It is a paper of the mind, for the mind, and by the mind. It is a paper of the body, for the body, and by the body. It is a paper of the senses, for the senses, and by the senses. It is a paper of the passions, for the passions, and by the passions. It is a paper of the affections, for the affections, and by the affections. It is a paper of the intellect, for the intellect, and by the intellect. It is a paper of the emotions, for the emotions, and by the emotions. It is a paper of the will, for the will, and by the will. It is a paper of the power, for the power, and by the power. It is a paper of the glory, for the glory, and by the glory. It is a paper of the honor, for the honor, and by the honor. It is a paper of the respect, for the respect, and by the respect. It is a paper of the admiration, for the admiration, and by the admiration. It is a paper of the love, for the love, and by the love. It is a paper of the friendship, for the friendship, and by the friendship. It is a paper of the brotherhood, for the brotherhood, and by the brotherhood. It is a paper of the sisterhood, for the sisterhood, and by the sisterhood. It is a paper of the humanity, for the humanity, and by the humanity. It is a paper of the world, for the world, and by the world. It is a paper of the nation, for the nation, and by the nation. It is a paper of the state, for the state, and by the state. It is a paper of the county, for the county, and by the county. It is a paper of the town, for the town, and by the town. It is a paper of the village, for the village, and by the village. It is a paper of the farm, for the farm, and by the farm. It is a paper of the school, for the school, and by the school. It is a paper of the church, for the church, and by the church. It is a paper of the home, for the home, and by the home. It is a paper of the heart, for the heart, and by the heart. It is a paper of the soul, for the soul, and by the soul. It is a paper of the spirit, for the spirit, and by the spirit. It is a paper of the mind, for the mind, and by the mind. It is a paper of the body, for the body, and by the body. It is a paper of the senses, for the senses, and by the senses. It is a paper of the passions, for the passions, and by the passions. It is a paper of the affections, for the affections, and by the affections. It is a paper of the intellect, for the intellect, and by the intellect. It is a paper of the emotions, for the emotions, and by the emotions. It is a paper of the will, for the will, and by the will. It is a paper of the power, for the power, and by the power. It is a paper of the glory, for the glory, and by the glory. It is a paper of the honor, for the honor, and by the honor. It is a paper of the respect, for the respect, and by the respect. It is a paper of the admiration, for the admiration, and by the admiration. It is a paper of the love, for the love, and by the love. It is a paper of the friendship, for the friendship, and by the friendship. It is a paper of the brotherhood, for the brotherhood, and by the brotherhood. It is a paper of the sisterhood, for the sisterhood, and by the sisterhood. It is a paper of the humanity, for the humanity, and by the humanity. It is a paper of the world, for the world, and by the world. It is a paper of the nation, for the nation, and by the nation. It is a paper of the state, for the state, and by the state. It is a paper of the county, for the county, and by the county. It is a paper of the town, for the town, and by the town. It is a paper of the village, for the village, and by the village. It is a paper of the farm, for the farm, and by the farm. It is a paper of the school, for the school, and by the school. It is a paper of the church, for the church, and by the church. It is a paper of the home, for the home, and by the home. It is a paper of the heart, for the heart, and by the heart. It is a paper of the soul, for the soul, and by the soul. It is a paper of the spirit, for the spirit, and by the spirit. It is a paper of the mind, for the mind, and by the mind. It is a paper of the body, for the body, and by the body. It is a paper of the senses, for the senses, and by the senses. It is a paper of the passions, for the passions, and by the passions. It is a paper of the affections, for the affections, and by the affections. It is a paper of the intellect, for the intellect, and by the intellect. It is a paper of the emotions, for the emotions, and by the emotions. It is a paper of the will, for the will, and by the will. It is a paper of the power, for the power, and by the power. It is a paper of the glory, for the glory, and by the glory. It is a paper of the honor, for the honor, and by the honor. It is a paper of the respect, for the respect, and by the respect. It is a paper of the admiration, for the admiration, and by the admiration. It is a paper of the love, for the love, and by the love. It is a paper of the friendship, for the friendship, and by the friendship. It is a paper of the brotherhood, for the brotherhood, and by the brotherhood. It is a paper of the sisterhood, for the sisterhood, and by the sisterhood. It is a paper of the humanity, for the humanity, and by the humanity. It is a paper of the world, for the world, and by the world. It is a paper of the nation, for the nation, and by the nation. It is a paper of the state, for the state, and by the state. It is a paper of the county, for the county, and by the county. It is a paper of the town, for the town, and by the town. It is a paper of the village, for the village, and by the village. It is a paper of the farm, for the farm, and by the farm. It is a paper of the school, for the school, and by the school. It is a paper of the church, for the church, and by the church. It is a paper of the home, for the home, and by the home. It is a paper of the heart, for the heart, and by the heart. It is a paper of the soul, for the soul, and by the soul. It is a paper of the spirit, for the spirit, and by the spirit. It is a paper of the mind, for the mind, and by the mind. It is a paper of the body, for the body, and by the body. It is a paper of the senses, for the senses, and by the senses. It is a paper of the passions, for the passions, and by the passions. It is a paper of the affections, for the affections, and by the affections. It is a paper of the intellect, for the intellect, and by the intellect. It is a paper of the emotions, for the emotions, and by the emotions. It is a paper of the will, for the will, and by the will. It is a paper of the power, for the power, and by the power. It is a paper of the glory, for the glory, and by the glory. It is a paper of the honor, for the honor, and by the honor. It is a paper of the respect, for the respect, and by the respect. It is a paper of the admiration, for the admiration, and by the admiration. It is a paper of the love, for the love, and by the love. It is a paper of the friendship, for the friendship, and by the friendship. It is a paper of the brotherhood, for the brotherhood, and by the brotherhood. It is a paper of the sisterhood, for the sisterhood, and by the sisterhood. It is a paper of the humanity, for the humanity, and by the humanity. It is a paper of the world, for the world, and by the world. It is a paper of the nation, for the nation, and by the nation. It is a paper of the state, for the state, and by the state. It is a paper of the county, for the county, and by the county. It is a paper of the town, for the town, and by the town. It is a paper of the village, for the village, and by the village. It is a paper of the farm, for the farm, and by the farm. It is a paper of the school, for the school, and by the school. It is a paper of the church, for the church, and by the church. It is a paper of the home, for the home, and by the home. It is a paper of the heart, for the heart, and by the heart. It is a paper of the soul, for the soul, and by the soul. It is a paper of the spirit, for the spirit, and by the spirit. It is a paper of the mind, for the mind, and by the mind. It is a paper of the body, for the body, and by the body. It is a paper of the senses, for the senses, and by the senses. It is a paper of the passions, for the passions, and by the passions. It is a paper of the affections, for the affections, and by the affections. It is a paper of the intellect, for the intellect, and by the intellect. It is a paper of the emotions, for the emotions, and by the emotions. It is a paper of the will, for the will, and by the will. It is a paper of the power, for the power, and by the power. It is a paper of the glory, for the glory, and by the glory. It is a paper of the honor, for the honor, and by the honor. It is a paper of the respect, for the respect, and by the respect. It is a paper of the admiration, for the admiration, and by the admiration. It is a paper of the love, for the love, and by the love. It is a paper of the friendship, for the friendship, and by the friendship. It is a paper of the brotherhood, for the brotherhood, and by the brotherhood. It is a paper of the sisterhood, for the sisterhood, and by the sisterhood. It is a paper of the humanity, for the humanity, and by the humanity. It is a paper of the world, for the world, and by the world. It is a paper of the nation, for the nation, and by the nation. It is a paper of the state, for the state, and by the state. It is a paper of the county, for the county, and by the county. It is a paper of the town, for the town, and by the town. It is a paper of the village, for the village, and by the village. It is a paper of the farm, for the farm, and by the farm. It is a paper of the school, for the school, and by the school. It is a paper of the church, for the church, and by the church. It is a paper of the home, for the home, and by the home. It is a paper of the heart, for the heart, and by the heart. It is a paper of the soul, for the soul, and by the soul. It is a paper of the spirit, for the spirit, and by the spirit. It is a paper of the mind, for the mind, and by the mind. It is a paper of the body, for the body, and by the body. It is a paper of the senses, for the senses, and by the senses. It is a paper of the passions, for the passions, and by the passions. It is a paper of the affections, for the affections, and by the affections. It is a paper of the intellect, for the intellect, and by the intellect. It is a paper of the emotions, for the emotions, and by the emotions. It is a paper of the will, for the will, and by the will. It is a paper of the power, for the power, and by the power. It is a paper of the glory, for the glory, and by the glory. It is a paper of the honor, for the honor, and by the honor. It is a paper of the respect, for the respect, and by the respect. It is a paper of the admiration, for the admiration, and by the admiration. It is a paper of the love, for the love, and by the love